

Moscow-based company goes global

Valuable new business partnership: Russian/Eurasian firm joins leading world-wide executive recruitment network

April 2010:

Global recruitment support

IRC Global Executive Search Partners is delighted to welcome Support Partners (Russia and CIS) as a new member firm in its world-wide business network.

"We have in-depth knowledge of Russian and Eurasian markets; as international businesses come to Russia, they can rely on us to be a reliable business partner, and help them execute the projects on time, professionally, through our IRC network."

Konstantin Borisov, General Manager

"Additional key partnerships broaden and deepen our global capabilities. Support Partners is our newest member firm," says Sylvia MacArthur, president of the Executive Board of IRC Global Executive Search Partners. "The company is a valuable addition to our global recruitment reach."

"The fast moving consumer goods (FMCG) sector will definitely be growing, as we have a growing middle class that was not really shaken by the [economic] crisis.

We are starting to see a war for talent in this sector.

Konstantin Borisov, General Manager

Konstantin Borisov is recommended as "one of the very best recruiters - regardless of location, anywhere in the world. He is driven, precise and understands our business needs in a rare and exceptional manner." He leads the Support Partners' team, sharing his wide-ranging experience, which includes launching Morgan Hunt Selection in Russia; initiating a successful joint venture with Kazakhstan's leading oil and gas contracting company to promote ANCOR in Central Asia's booming market; and operations manager with SGS Technical Staffing Services.

"I have several assignments with major Russian industrial companies looking for experts, and they say it would be very nice if candidates speak, or at least understand, basic Russian."

Konstantin Borisov, General Manager
