

IRC with New Partner in Israel

October 21th, 2016

IRC Global Executive Search Partners adds a new partner firm in Israel. IRC Israel – Hunter Executive Placement joined the alliance in September 2016 and attended the IRC Global Conference for the first time recently in Prague.

Good News for Clients in Key Middle-East Markets

Hunter has established its position as an innovative and prominent force in matching executive talent with key positions, both locally and internationally for over a decade. Hunter's extraordinary success rate and level of client and candidate satisfaction has made it the top choice of many leading Israeli corporations, especially operating in the Financial Services, Banking and Technology sectors.

"We are extremely happy to become actively present in Israel, one of the most strategic markets in the world with a huge demand for the executive talent. With significant investments occurring across in the country we strongly believe our partnership with Hunter Executive Placement will create countless opportunities for our clients worldwide, Patrick Westerburger, the President of IRC says.

Ron Magen, Managing Partner Hunter Executive Placement: "We are certain that joining IRC Global Executive Search Partners will enable our clients to benefit from the global capabilities and experience of an international company, and still be handled by the best professionals in a local boutique. This combination can contribute to best results with extraordinary service.

Our advantage lies in the passion for our business, the enthusiasm and desire to take part and be part of one's most crucial paths in life, whether it is a person or an organization. Our most valuable strength is our ability to recognize a need and translate it to a precise process which then enables a perfect action. Now we'll be able to extend our services to a global reach."
